

Mind War

Sepultura

Do you walk in shadows
Do you walk with fear
Do you sleep with anger
Is there ever focus

Do you keep it near
When you plan things out
God's hands god's fault

Just drunk with power
Lost cause
No coming back
Lost soul
There's no regret
Lost cause
No thrust, Mindwar
No coming back

A war of words
Battle's in your mind

Contradictions rising
What's wrong and right
There's no regret
Lost cause
Lost soul
No coming back

I know you've heard it all
It's no excuse for what's been done
When you sat and watched there suffering
You know you felt the pain

It's just ripping away at everything that I feel
Even the sight of you makes me ill
We've got sick people in this fucked up world
No coming back
I wish could wake you up - to make you see this is real
Lost cause

There's no regret
Lost soul
Lost cause
No coming back
No thrust, Mindwar
