

Phantom Self

Sepultura

What happened to me? Felt like I had everything
Such a big catastrophe but I had deal with the struggle
It all began passing life so easily
Ready for almost anything, but it took a different direction

Then, one night, sharp turns. A light came from no where

Blown away. Never felt my injuries
Bleeding deep inside of me
Just knew I had to help all those people

Lost. My mind it's gone. That life
Lost. I've been looking for myself
It haunts me everyday
I'm searching for a truth no longer there

Transformed I'm someone else
Must face my Phantom Self

It's a mystery. Changed my body's chemistry
Always creeping up on me
Wiped out my whole soul of existence

The crash. Flash backs. Carnage the blood keeps on flowing
Killing me. Trapped inside this tragedy
Can't see the road in front of me
Replay this nightmare over and over

Lost. I've been looking for myself
It haunts me everyday
I'm searching for a truth no longer there

Transformed I'm someone else
Must face my Phantom Self
Transformed I'm someone else
I'll face my Phantom Self
