Beautiful New World

In brand new world foresee something, it's an easy drunken heart

Gathered stars in the sky, silence's ringing the night

Autumn relives the charming eyes in a hypnotic season

Silent pool dashes flow through in a confused universe

The lonesome midnight follows destiny, don't care in abyssal resistance

Starting my life anew to be reborn, no matter what obduracy you are

A floating unlimited age, tomorrow had portrayal

Forget life is a hardship, welcome to the beautiful new world

Willing to overlook kismet with an everlasting smile

Welcome again to the beautiful brand new world

In brand new world without prejudice, renew inquisition

Chaotic trace in the past, if it can permute again

The winter snow melts a cold heart, a shivering breathing

Frost and ice in your heart, sunset falls down alone

Unfriended loneliness soared into the air, dearly hope who can comprehend

The return freedom's intoxicated, no matter what the cherished hope is

Free from restraint and discern to make some great wishes

Lacerating thorn-way, sail in the beautiful new world

Wind is piercingly cold, whips the hot smoke

Fly with the wind to the beautiful brand new world
