Windbreak, suddenly scatters away Gloomy flood-tides keep rise and fall Tread on ruthless human heart Sunset in icy polar regions

Propoundly fate is teasing, insipid life's on the way

Love in confusion can't take away the truth, our love is in the air

Magnify the soul without trace, drag into the way of nonlife

A shiver down is cold & fear
The star had slept in deep quiet sea
Windstorm breaks a dim memory
Vanished into a limitless dream

The wind conceals loneliness, drifts from town to town An earnest rigidity!

Love is easily broken of stranger's fate

Is it right or wrong?

Stubborn, insist upon betrayal, dishearten me fast Even makes my heartache, just breaking the chain

Agitating love turns round & round again, our love is in the air  $\ensuremath{\mathbf{r}}$

Monologue of love resplendently may disappear into the blue
