Tears

Seraphim

I forgot distress with a free mind You never show me any hope between your eyes Love, peel off gradually Aspiration deeply!

I'm holding you but shivers pass through me A mysterious riddle from my heart I feel depressed in the darkness The suspicion that intruded itself into my mind

Taste a sweet illusion, a revelation, sternly cool and unmoved Witty day & night with tender sentiments I never know why I am walking into the trap?

The heart with joy & sadness, suddenly sublime the tears of lov e for you! Obscurity! Sleep will forget to part the love & affection

Sit in a swing in the core of the night I can't comprehend any true heartiness you have Sea, dip down day by day Profundity in memory!

Traces of tears in your eyes down to the earth's core, reflecti on of destiny Turbulent and surging, flooded affection Who's gonna shed the teardrops that fall in loneliness?
