

Calling To Say

Serena Ryder

I wasn't sure if I should call,
Even though we're family and all.
It seems strange to let it past,
I just thought I'd call and ask,
Are you having fun?
Are you seeing anyone..
Yeah, I've been busy too,
I hope I'm not keeping you.

I'm just calling to say,
Merry Christmas, merry merry Christmas baby.
I'm just calling to say,
Merry Christmas, merry merry Christmas baby.

Hey, I'm glad this number's good,
I wasn't sure just where we stood.
It's good to know that we're still friends,
Nothings changed much on my end.
Yeah I'm doing fine, you just came to mind.
I guess it's the time of year.
It's strange that you're not here.

I'm just calling to say,
Merry Christmas, merry merry Christmas baby.
I'm just calling to say,
Merry christmas, merry merry Christmas baby.

Yeah, we all went out last night,
Driving around to see the lights.
Just like we always do,
Everyone there but you.

I'm just calling to say,
Merry Christmas, merry merry Christmas baby.
I'm just calling to say,
Merry christmas, merry merry Christmas baby.

Yeah, I'm having fun.
I've been seeing someone.
Okay that's a little lie,
There's been no other guy.

I'm just calling to say,
Merry Christmas, merry merry Christmas baby.
I'm just calling to say,
Merry christmas, merry merry Christmas baby.
