

Why Can't I Love You

Serena Ryder

Should I be sorry?
How was I supposed to know?
This isn't how I want it to go Seems so cold
I can't remember when I started to pretend Happiness was happening again
I should've known Seemed so perfect Held you, close to Close to notice
I couldn't breath

Why can't I love you
I can't let you in Questioning everything I thought you said
Tell me I'm crazy for burning our bed
No, I didn't want to go
But it's the only thing I know

Sorry seems another word to say when your love is going away you'll be fine someday, maybe in a week or two you'll see what I mean to you and change your mind

seems so perfect
held you, close to
close to notice
I couldn't breath

Why can't I love you
I can't let you in
questioning everything I thought you said
tell me I'm crazy
for burning our bed
no I didn't want to go
but it's the only thing I know

Why can't I love you?
I can't let you in Questioning everthing I thought you said
Tell me I'm crazy
for burning our bed
no I didn't want to go
but it's the only thing I...

Why can't I love you
I can't let you in
questioning everything I thought you said
tell me I'm crazy
for burning our bed
you know I didn't want to go
but it's the only thing I know
