

Age of Glory

Serenity

Never thought I could kill a man Raging for respect - new king
- noble hearted Still there's more I am longing for Eastern world at war - conquest - invasion

So shall it be Prepare for fight of dawn I see for blood Power of an union

Fade away Close teary eyes End of my life So we rise and fall The he empire's vast It will not last - The Great Age Of Glory

No remorse and no sympathy For the Persian crowd The kingdom will fall

Babylon - it will rise today Now the eye of the world Dark times are close

The edge of time Approaching without mercy On a humble man I'm falling into sleep

Fade away Close teary eyes End of my life So we rise and fall The
he empire's vast It will not last - The Great Age Of Glory

So desperate to leave Your soul full of crimes There's no way to believe What you came to take - I will not cry

Hands of the gods, they will take care Of you and your men Relief in the east - a new king reborn A new world has come My heart is at stake - for what is torn apart

Fade away Close teary eyes End of my life So we rise and fall The
he empire's vast It will not last - The Great Age Of Glory

Fade away Close teary eyes End of my life So we rise and fall The
he empire's vast It will not last - The Great Age Of Glory
