

Bleeding Tree

Serenity

My sanctuary's gone forever
I'm left in here, victimized and blind

No leading fire, no morning star
A vast blackness is swallowing my day

Deep inside the woods of sadness
Behind the hills of pain
Just beneath the bleeding tree
Another place has been reserved for me

Roots that kill my breath like chains
The darkness is invincible
I can't remember anything before
This hellish place will be my grave
