Serenity

Ad gladios, Signa Inferre Ad gladios, Vae Victis Ad gladios, Gl oria Mundi Ad gladios, Vae Victis A statesman's heart must be p laced in his head

I can remember all the days of violence I can remember all the days they fought for rights When men united all by fear and int erest I mastered them with hopeful promises I've broken

Almighty giver of all life, Sun you're my god, open my eyes, I have to conquer; I am made to server that aim

Do as I command, You'll never stop a dreamer Imagination rule t he world And I saw it grand Fight at my side, You'll never tast e the failure Courage is key - let me teach you so, The Art Of War

I do not want a bench covered with velvet, I do not want a crow n unless power goes with it Religion I would use to server ambi tion Glory is fleeting, the obscure is forever

Almighty giver of all life, Sun you're my god, open my eyes, I have to conquer, no matter the pain, no matter the harm

Do as I command, You'll never stop a dreamer Imagination rule t he world And I saw it grand Fight at my side, You'll never tast e the failure Courage is key - let me teach you so, The Art Of War

I command for greater tomorrow, Power is my reward. Raise your head, fate will guide you now and forever

Do as I command, You'll never stop a dreamer Imagination rule t he world And I saw it grand Fight at my side, You'll never tast e the failure Courage is key - let me teach you so, The Art Of
