

The Dreamer

Serenity

Life ... fading time
Feel like victim of now and my conscience
Hide ... lots of love
Always wanted but never given back?
Scared ... Dreams and miracles, thoughts and meanings
Forever wished away?
Hate ... Just a word? Just an answer or an indication on ignorance?

In his charming dreams
He dreams oblivious of reality
(Awake) Just one lonely tear
After dreaming all the truth again

The past - remember
And choose your words prudent
Realize that life's too short to wait for it's delight
So try to take it
(I've seen a dreamer waiting for his time
I've seen the dreamer dying without fulfillment)

In his sadest dreams
He dreamed of loneliness and fear
(Awake) Just a little thought
In his dreams he's seen the truth again

No thought wasted on him
No memories remain - scaring
Real life he's never known
His feelings never shown - frightening
Before it's too late no time for hate
Just take these hands you touch on your way

In his charming dreams
He dreamed oblivious of reality
(Awake) Just one lonely tear
After dreaming all the truth again
