Chelsea Morning

Sérgio Mendes

Woke up, it was a Chelsea morning And the first thing that I heard Was a song outside my window And the traffic wrote the words It came ringing up like christmas bells And rapping up like pipes and drums

Oh, won't you stay we'll put on the day And we'll wear it 'till the night comes

Woke up, it was a Chelsea morning And the first thing that I saw Was the sun through yellow curtains And a rainbow on the wall Blue, red, green and gold to welcome you Crimson crystal beads to beckon

Oh, won't you stay we'll put on the day There's a sun show every second.

Now the curtain opens on a portrait of today And the streets are paved with passersby And pigeons fly, and papers lie Waiting to blow away

Woke up, it was a Chelsea morning And the first thing that I knew There was milk and toast and honey And a bowl of orange juice too And the sun poured in like butterscotch And stuck to all my senses Oh, won't you stay we'll put on the day And we'll talk in present tenses

When the cuntain closes And the rainbow runs away I will bring you incense owls by night By candlelight, by two jewel light If only you will stay Pretty baby won't you Wake up, it is a Chelsea morning
