

Crystal Illusions (Memórias de Marta Saré)

Sérgio Mendes

Look back to see all the dreams
You said you never even tried for
Like mirrors try to see
New reflections that will be
Crystal Illusions

I'll walk but don't walk behind me
I'll go where no one will find me
The shadows walking beside me will find me

Could it be I'm just a dreamer
Only looking for the sun
If I stay awake the morning
I believe the day will come

I'll go away
(I'll go away)
I'll find a way
(I'll find a way)
I'll try to know
(Know what I say)
I'll go

All the love that hides behind the eyes
That try to find a reason
If you only look within it's true
Love will begin
Waiting there to find you

I'll walk but don't walk behind me
I'll go where no one will find me
The shadows walking beside me will find me

All I want to know is wonder
Want my eyes to feel the rain
All the tears that spill for sorrow
Will begin and end again

I'll go away
(I'll go away)
I'll find a way
(I'll find a way)
I'll try to know
(Know what I say)
I'll go

I'll walk but don't walk behind me
I'll go where no one will find me
(I will be waiting for the sun)
The shadows walking beside me will find me
(I want my eyes to feel the rain)
I'll walk but don't walk behind me
(We'll begin and end again)
I'll go where no one will find me
(I will be waiting for the sun)
The shadows walking beside me will find me...
