

Push

Serial Joe

Standing
In the corner of my mind
I try to run, but I'm
So far behind.
I don't know the meaning of this life anyway
I try to find a way to get around this place.
[CHORUS:]

I'm gonna face this head on
I'm gonna push until these chains are gone.

Step into the doorway of this hole where I reside
I kick the wall down, step to the other side
I need the feeling of your calm embrace
I try to find the way around this.

[CHORUS]
