

Should Have Been Mine

Serial Joe

You shut me out,
Don't hear a word, I'm sayin'
Just can't understand, this crazy game you're playin'
Need a little time to make it right
Wipe the tears from your eyes, if it takes all night
[CHORUS:]

Look into my eyes
And see into my heart
'Cause the pain I see in you
Is tearin' me apart.

Don't turn away
Slip into yourself
Open the door and let me in
My mind is racin', tryin' to find the answer
To these crazy games you're playin'.

[CHORUS]

Let me change the way you feel
Look right through me and see nothing of what I see
With frustration at my side
All I want is to set you free.

[CHORUS]
