

This is it, listen up right now.
I'm singing this for all the world to hear,
This is our story, in lack of human glory,
So tonight, I'm breaking down despite
What you may have found,
Attention, the nice guy's left the room
And now the prick will take the floor.

So here we go,
I'm not alone,
Your covers blown,
Hey sweetie welcome to your song.

I never wanted to exploit your every flaw,
Until you brought this forward, brought this forward,
I know I never wanted to see you fall.
Until you brought this forward, brought this forward,

Subject 'K' it's you I loathe the most,
Quick to threat and quick to boast,
It's just too damn sad and too damn bad
You'll not even come close,
To what I can do,
Your girl knows this much is true,
I'll admit I was unaware that two cheaters make a pair.

So here we go,
I'm not alone,
Your covers blown,
Hey sweetie welcome to your song.

I never wanted to exploit your every flaw,
Until you brought this forward, brought this forward,
I know I never wanted to see you fall.
Until you brought this forward, brought this forward,

Those pictures sit on your shelf,
No more being yourself,
In this returning thorn in your side.
Go ahead believe the words he says,
Tell yourself it will be different and,
May your lips taste of mine when you kiss him.

I never wanted to exploit your every flaw,
Until you brought this forward, brought this forward,
I know I never wanted to see you fall.
Until you brought this forward, brought this forward
