

Look Outside Your Window

Seth Lakeman

You, you should be sipped not drunk,
You should be sailed not sunk.
Take a look outside your window,
A little look outside your window.
You, are you a friend or foe,
Are you the man I know?
Get a look outside your window,
Another look outside your window.
I'll be seeking sunshine after rain,
I'll be keeping comfort over pain,
I'll be feeling freedom has that view to carry on,
Do you want some?
Go, look outside your window.
You, are you all wet and wild,
Have you a certain style?
Take a look outside your window,
A little look outside your window.
You, you should be picked not punched,
You should be sailed not sunk.
Take a look outside your window,
Another look outside your window.
Chorus
I never had a reason before you...