

Hellstorms over the empyrean

Setherial

War, battles, infernal storms will come
Black and cold without sunshine rays

Exploring, betrayal, war-machines of hate
Mesmerized by the prosperity of infernal hell

Hell, unleashed, upon this hatred soil
Armed and furious, legions of the underworld

Undivine, ravenous, victorious we shall stand
Angels will be raped in the blood of a thousand murdered saints

We are as one with the furious blackwinds
Turning gods creation into ashes and dust

Ejected by the thunders
Burned and perished

Satan, no mercy or regret
Crowned by devils

Abolish creation
Subdue my will, redeem the transition to night
Unveil the curtains of chaos and despair
Behold the dawn of gods demise

Ejected by the thunders
Burned and perished

Satan, no mercy or regret
Crowned by devils

Cyclones, whirlwinds and ashes all around
Contaminated
The holocaust rages over savred ground

Storms, thunders, the dark age will arrive
Black and cold without the weak sunshine rays

Aggression, hatred, eternal be our march
Unleashing hellstorms over the empyrean
