

The limbo of insanity

Setherial

The ahses flew by the winds
In a cold diabolic universe
Two worlds collide
Infernal destruction, armageddon reign!

The gateways opens before me
I'll transcend into the dark
Where time and space
Transforms into nothingness

Behold - the sulphur seas
Flesh - torned from within
Kill - the vermin of the light
Was - the force of damnation

I am the one - the keeper of the throne
I am the one - who was the fire born

Spoken tongues, rising hellfire - embracing by the scorching flames
Demonic creatures - tearing the sky, shredded ashes remains
My demons come in many forms - shadowed and mysterious Enslaved by fear - the night draws near

The universe trembles before me - enthralled by my burning rage
Ancient secrets of creation - now mine to obtain My hatred comes in many forms - shadowed and blasphemous
A world in fear - the night draws near

The ahses flew by the winds
In a cold diabolic universe
Two worlds collide
Infernal destruction, armageddon reign!

Distort this creation of light
Into a limbo of insanity
One world remain
The infernal dominion of fire and flames

Behold - the sulphur seas
Flesh - torned from within
Kill - the vermin of the light
Was - the force of damnation

I am the one - the keeper of the throne
I am the one - who was the fire born

The gateway opens before me
Infernal destruction, armageddon reign...

Armageddon reign!
