

Eyes of Summer

Seven Kingdoms

Out in the dark
At home on the edge
I'm climbing on top of the world
As north wind blows
I stand on a ledge
With burning green eyes of the wolf

I'm running free!

The eyes of Summer will carry me north to my destiny after the fall
Seeking the secrets of forgotten forces awakening beyond the Wall

Learning to fly with my unopened eye
Yearning to fly with the raven so high

Run to the north
Across barren waste
You'll find me inside of your dreams
In haunted woods
Where Others await
And nothing's as safe as it seems

Deliver me!
