She Wants Results

Seven Mary Three

I'm gonna make my break Can a whole life be rearranged? The only chance I have To keep her safe

Lay me down tonight With your broken heart Baby wants results Or a new start

Am I half the man That I said I was? If I promised that Why didn't I show up?

Lay me down tonight With your broken heart Baby wants results Or a new start

Can I swim across This faded atmosphere? I'd say anything Just to keep you here

Lay me down tonight With your broken heart Baby wants results She said she wants results Baby wants results Or a new start
