No Reason

Seven Nations

He can't believe his eyes But with much surprise Believes She won't be back today I thought I heard her say Goodbye And I believe, in nothing's wrong Don't get me wrong That's the way it should be He's floating 'round the day Won't come down no way No reason And I found out today That maybe it's okay To carry on this way If you think it's good for you And I believe, in a goodbye Where no one will cry That's the way it should be
