

Before we go this far

Seven Thorns

So before the crowd I stand
Newly strengthened and wise
As the final hope for man
Almost caught up by time

Since the day we were born we've been destined to win
And we all shall reach V Day when the time is in

But the doubts run up my spine
Hunts my soul in the night
Now this human core of mine
Is a thorn in my side

We are destined to face our final test
And eventually end our glorious quest

But before we go this far
I will pray for a sign
That the choice of ours is right
And that man will survive
Our unity's the trump card of divine supremacy
So before we go this far
Give me one more sign
One more sign

We'll have faith in the strength of our noble hearts
'Cause the free world depends on how we play our cards
A milestone of all time
When victory is mine

But before we go this far
I will pray for a sign
That the choice of ours is right
And that man will survive
Our unity's the trump card of divine supremacy
So before we go this far
Give me one last sign
One last sign
