

End of the Road

Seven Thorns

Temptation is here
But that's not what you need to fear
Salvation is here
Maybe - but is it the price
Worth you pay?

A new savior is born
And like the old one he is wrong
The old still stand strong
Beloved and obey
Will they save us from hell?

Come and take my hand
I'll show you the way
To promised land
I'll show you the meaning to it all
The meaning of life!

Why trust my word
When so many lies have been told?
I'll give you no rules
And I will never
Condemn you to hell!

So come and take my hand
I'll show you the way
To the promised land
I'll show you the meaning to it all
The meaning of life!

Listen to your heart
I know how it sounds but it's a start
It's all inside you now sing along reach out for the sky!

Cause I know where to go
And I know what to live for Cause I know yes I know
There's a light at the end
The end of the road!

Cause I know
Why the stars shine so
Bright at night
And I know
There's no power beyond
It's a power within Waste of time
Don't pray down on your Knees at night
Waste no time
We are all at our own
You are not left alone!

Road - Road - Road!
