

In the times
Where darkness controls your mind
There is a greater force
Than you and me
Search your heart
In your soul you
Were meant to find
The answer to what you seek
Soon you will see!

Our time has come - united as one
We will rise to the Land of the Sun!

Today we stand up and fight
With metal by our side
On wings of steel we fly
And return to paradise!
Forever you will be free
Reach for the skies to see
United we stand
Together we fight for truth and liberty!

Long ago you swore to a way of life
A promise of yours to keep
Forever in a time
Now you wake
To the sound of an ancient call
Await for the stars to send a glorious sign!

No need to hide, stand up and FIGHT!
In the darkness we'll show you the light!

Breaking the spell
Time to fulfill
The oath that we once swore so long ago
Long ago!
