

Until freedom lasts forever

Seven Thorns

We will fight forever
With our strength and pride
We will never stop
Until freedom lasts forever

Whatch how we rise to the skies
Rising from the depths between
Reality
And fantasies complete now

We feel the force in our hearts
Feel our powers great and clean
But still unseen
So far in history now

Far and away we will go
Over seas, through wicked lands
Unkind and cold
Defy the world below

Some of us will die
But we know the reason why
We fight for peace
And liberty our war is justified

We will fight forever
With our strength and pride
We will never stop
Until freedom lasts forever

With a will unlike anything
The world has ever seen
We shall defeat
The people of the horror cults
Undermining all that
We hold dear
The inevitable fear
Of the unknown
Won't overgrow our made up minds
We won't give in
Until freedom prevails

Now we've got all that it takes
To defy and break the chains
Of evil forces
Seeking our revenge so

Hope is now all that we need
To endure the dangers

Of our noble deeds
And make our quest complete and

Then in this strong unity
We'll return to glory, fame
With dignity
And praise or victory

Some of us will die
But we know the reason why
We fight for peace

We will fight forever
We will never stop
