

Lies

Seven Wiser

I'm the one that was there for you
When you cut yourself and started to bleed
And I'm the one that you counted on for all the Favors that you asked of me
I'm the one that would dry your tears
Every time you'd come crying to me
But ever since the day you blew me off
Everything you say

Is a lie, everything is a lie
Don't you lie to me.

Sick of the games that you played on me
So I walk alone and suffer in need
And I'm the one that I counted on
For all the favors that I ask of me
You're the one that will cry the tears
When you see what you've created of me
But ever since the day you blew me off
Everything you say

Is a lie, everything is a lie
Don't you lie to me.
