

One In Equal

Seven Wiser

How could you take advantage of my situation?
I'm fallin' far in this world without a rope
Or someone to hold me up
Someone to keep my feet on the ground
My head in this world

Never thought I'd see the day
When everything around me is one world, one life
And everything is all the same
We're one in equal
I think I see the last of it
The haunting memory is fading fast
All in all

We're one in equal

I think I hear all the children crying
Looking for the rise of a brand new day

Someone to hold me up
Someone to keep my feet on the ground
My head in this world
