

Walk Alone

Seven Wiser

Where were you
When I was growing up
Never there I should have know
Watch the time just slip away
Never knew you know you're gone
Doesn't anybody hear you?
When you calling out for help
Doesn't anybody know you there

No there's nobody now
There's nothing left for you
To throw in to the sea
Nobody knows you
Nobody see you
You might as well
Walk this earth alone

Took a chance to make my life
Something more for you to want
Rip myself open for you
Never knew me now I am gone
Doesn't anybody hear you?
When you're calling out for help
Doesn't anybody know your there

No there's nobody now
There's nothing left for you
To throw in to the sea
Nobody knows you
Nobody see you
You might as well
Walk this earth alone
Might as well
Walk this earth alone

What do you expect me to be
Now that you forsaking me
Your eyes are tearing me apart
Expecting more then what I am...

No there's nobody now
To throw in to the sea
Nobody knows you
Nobody see you
You might as well
Walk this earth alone
Nobody now
There's nothing left for you
To throw in to the sea
Nobody knows you
Nobody see you (nobody see you)
You might as well
Walk this earth alone

Nobody knows you
Nobody see you

You might as well
Walk this earth alone

Nobody knows you
Nobody see you
You might as well
