

Eyes of an Angel

Seven Witches

When you set your soul apart
Is it something that you can't go without, go without
Take a chance, a chance to see
Where life will lead a mystery, a mystery

Never rush, someday love will find you
It's in her heart and you're looking for an angel
Eyes of an angel, with the fire down below
Eyes of an angel, with the wings of a dove

Make your life what you want
Preceed what other's say about or talk about
In your eyes I see a dream
Of what is and what will be, eternity

Never rush, someday love will find you
It's in her heart and you're looking for an angel
Eyes of an angel, with the fire down below
Eyes of an angel, with the wings of a dove

Eyes of an angel, with the fire down below
Eyes of an angel, with the wings of a dove
