

Moto GP

Seven Witches

The ultimate in two wheeled flight
The average rider would die of fright
Prototype moto machines
Light as air and downright mean

Rage on
Full throttle - scream and hold on Life blurs - at 200 miles per hour

It doesn't get faster than this
Every season's a full - on blitz
Squeeze a few more horses out
And shed some pounds to win the bout

All hail - praise the mighty racing gods
Fearless - defying death against all odds
