

The Answer

Seven Witches

How many times must I go through this pain?
So Many loved one slost with nothing gained
Sometimes I feel like I can't go on Where do we go when we move to the great beyond?
It really seems so hard today
Don't think I can keep going on this way
So Many things that remind me of you
Please tell me what is there left for me to do?

I know that someone must feel the same
This cold hard emptiness drives me insane
I always feel as if something's wrong
These feelings I have are really much too strong
Sometimes I don't know what to say
It weighs too heavy now - it kills my brain
So Many times that I think of you
Please help me do what I need to do

So Many fears so much pain
So many tears who is to blame?
Out of my mind thinking of you
Why must we die what can I do?

I'm looking for the answer
Don't fear it today
