

Nobody Wants It

Sevendust

Straight thought and time is ticking
Pushed out, no one listened
I think the fight is gone
But the burden that we own
That really woke the dead
(Dead, wake, nobody wants to hear the truth)

Nobody wants it
Nobody wants it
Nobody wants to hear the truth
Nobody wants it
Nobody needs the pain but you
One minute left in hell
And everyones's running scared

Nobody wants it
Nobody wants the pain but you

Stand down now pick up the pieces
I'll give you that and call us even
I see the will is gone
But life you think you own
Am I the walking dead
(Dead, wake, nobody wants the truth)

Nobody wants it
Nobody wants it
Nobody wants to hear the truth
Nobody wants it
Nobody needs the pain but you
One minute left in hell
And everyones's running scared

Nobody wants it
Nobody wants the pain but you

(Dead, wake, nobody wants the truth)

One minute left in hell
And nobody really cares
And everyone's running scared

Nobody wants it
Nobody wants it
Nobody wants to hear the truth
Nobody wants it
Nobody needs the pain but you
