

Prayer

Sevendust

I remember praying with you, yeah yeah
I remember praying with you

Feeling alone and I'm by myself
I can't find no help
Thinking of you it drives me crazy
I got a feeling of lazy, yeah

So much frustration built inside of me
It's killing me, oh
What am I to do? I can't lose you

Who do you pray to?
Who do you pray to?
Who do you pray to?

This is my prayer for you all
This is my prayer for you all

I stand all alone looking at my shoes
And making me think of you
Like my daddy said, "Boy be brave
Don't let them take you, no"
What can I do? I think I'm losing you

This is my prayer for you all
This is my prayer for you all

This is my prayer for you all
This is my prayer for you all, hey yeah

It's all I need, all I want
(This is my prayer for you all)

I remember praying with you, yeah, yeah
I remember praying with you, oh, yeah
Oh you left me, you're gone, you're gone, you're gone
I remember praying with you, yeah yeah
