

I for one will say I haven't seen it all I know a second chance for me was long so change is still to think about the world i took that brought me here (WHO AM I) suppose to be

I breath
I bleed
I am here to show you all my mistake
(ITS RIGHT HERE BESIDE YOU)

Lie next to me and you'll see I am the scapegoat I am here to tell you that this life's not for free look at me I am the scapegoat what will you do about it

Find another way to look at life and understand that (I CANT STOP) whats suppose to be but i can show you what it will take (IF YOU WOULD SHUT UP AND LISTEN)

Lie next to me and you'll see I am the scapegoat I am here to tell you that this life's not for free look at me I am the scapegoat what will you do about it (LIE)

Lie next to me and you'll see I am the scapegoat I am here to tell you that this life's not for free look at me I am the scapegoat what will you do about it.
