

Story of Your Life

Sevendust

Express what you think it is I wanna hear
Only time will tell if you will ever see it my way

I can bring you back
If you can handle
Some roundhouse kicks from your conscience
Sit back, there's more to come

Can't you see?
It's not what you think it is

It's the story of your life
Walkin' through it, blind
Never see the answers
Running out of time

Always expecting something
It's the story of your life
All these questions point to you

Respect's something that I'll never give to you
You'll never learn until you come to grips with me

You're not the only one
Who breathes the air that's here for all to share
*ed up choice
If you think I'm gonna take this lyin' down

Step back slowly
There's no help for you here
'Cause you're the only one
Who can get you through this

It's, it's the story of your life
Walkin' through it, blind
Never see the answers
Running out of time

Always expecting something
It's the story of your life
All these questions point to you
Something you just don't understand

No respect, rejected
No acceptance, justice

Never see the answers
Running out of time

Always expecting something
It's the story of your life
All these questions point to you
Something you just don't understand
