

Suffocate

Sevendust

Hate all the blood on my hands
And the sins that bleed from my soul
Take it all away make it
Go away

Stand up for bein' the last one to control
(But) what you can't see is bein' the last one to know
(2x)

Fade into a dream
Try and save me from myself now
Save me from myself now
Fallen from the world
If I could ever breathe in the
Air maybe then I wouldn't suffocate

Face all the things that were Real to me long ago to save my Name I never thought it would
Be such a long way to fall

Stand up for bein' the last one to control
(But) what you can't see is bein' the last one to know

Fade into a dream
Try and save me from myself now
Save me from myself now
Fallen from the world
If I could ever breathe in the
Air maybe then I wouldn't suffocate
