

The End Is Coming

Sevendust

I see the last parade unfold
I try to understand (the meaning of it all)
If silence becomes us, then who will save us from the fall
It's coming for us all

NOW TRY AND RUN

(The end is coming) So run, keep runnin
(The end is coming) No more time to save ourselves
(The end is coming) Yeah, we became the enemy
(The end is coming) Your world is burning
The end is coming

I see the cruel charade as bright as the sun
I try to find my faith but all it does is runaway
If heaven refused us, then who will listen to our call?
When it all begins to fall

NOW TRY AND RUN

(The end is coming) So run, keep runnin
(The end is coming) No more time to save ourselves
(The end is coming) Yeah, we became the enemy
(The end is coming) Your world is burning
The end is coming

Divine security (4x)

So run, keep runnin
There's no time to save ourselves
No more time to save ourselves

(The end is coming) So run, keep runnin
(The end is coming) No more time to save ourselves
(The end is coming) Yeah, we became the enemy
(The end is coming) Your world keeps burning away
The end is coming
The end is coming
Your world keeps burning away
The end is coming
The end is coming
Your world is burning
The end is coming now
