

Shake the walls with
Subtle madness
Burning out just for
And remove us all
(See what you want)
You never lived this
(Take all you want)
For you the guilty one
You see no one

I tried to leave with my head on
But my head was too far away
I tried the world, they won't give up
I'm afraid that I'm here to stay

All this wick is
Broken solace
Two desperate men
Buried by demand
Do well
(See what you want)
You can't believe it
(Take all you want)
For you the guilty one
You see no one

I tried to leave with my head on
But my head was too far away
I tried the world, they won't give up
I'm afraid that I'm here to stay

For you the guilty one
You see no one
You see no one
(You see no one)

I tried to leave with my head on
But my head was too far away
I tried the world, they won't give up
I'm afraid that I'm here to stay
