

Hand over fist, I've been out here so long
Kill the monster deep inside so I can burn the candles out
I couldn't resist no matter how much I wanted
They need a man to criticize
Well you found him
Sold it, sold it, sold it, sold it

'Cause I was born to be the one catastrophe
A zombie feeding on the prey
No more seriously motivated days
No more stories to tell

I'm thrown straight into the madness
But I won't throw away all my defenses
Unfold the pages, it's pointless
I believe it, every comment

Cutting my teeth, I've been constantly haunted
I've been a monster all the time
And you're the one to fuel the fire
Couldn't believe that you got what you wanted
You see a chance to demonize, and you know it
Own it, own it, own it

'Cause I was born to be an endless tragedy
For all the world to come and save
No more seriously motivated days
No more stories to tell

I'm thrown straight into the madness
But I won't throw away all my defenses
Unfold the pages, it's pointless
I believe it, every comment

Madness, madness, madness

I'm thrown straight into the madness
But I won't throw away all my defenses
Unfold the pages, it's pointless
I believe it, every comment

I'm thrown straight into the madness
But I won't
Throw it away, yeah
