Riosa is the systems main planet.
Nufridon also gives the chance to live.
Neverending winter.
But Kranos is the systems treasury.
Romans control bring you to your knees.
Terium forever.

On Nufridon the crystal has no might.
People's trust in God here's shining bright.

And when the night will come, when Terium demands it's final to ll.
Each man will have to pay. But no-
one can afford - the price is too high.

The priests don't serve God anymore these days.
They even don't ask for creators ways.
People go astray.
Dictatorship of Romans hold men down.
They've lost the hope on saviour's coming soon.
He's already coming.

On Nufridon the crystal has no might.
People's trust in God here's shining bright.

And I won't leave it. But deep in your mind.
It deceives you. And poor words. Say nothing, no.

And when the night will come, when Terium demands it's final to ll.
Each man will have to pay. But no-
one can afford - the price is too high.
And when the night will come, when Terium demands it's final to ll.
Each man will have to pay. But no-
one can afford - the price is too high.
And when the night will come, when Terium demands it's final to ll.
Each man will have to pay. But no-one can afford - the price is too high.
