

On the Road Again

Seventh Avenue

I feel so alone, so alone
But, baby, believe me, I'll never cry for you, never cry for you u
Deep inside I'm so alone,
Broken promises tell me: our memories will never come to be
Don't fill my heart with pain,
I'll say it to you again and again

Again on the road
I will thank you oh my God
That you have shown me, I'm not alone
Again on the road
I will thank you oh my God
That you have shown me, I'm not alone

No more dirty games, no more days full of blame,
Baby believe me, I'll never cry for you, never cry for you
I can't see a way for you and me
Broken promises tell me: our memories will never come to be
I hope you'll find the right way
That's always for what I pray
But don't fill my heart with pain,
I'll say it to you again and again
