

Priests And Servants

Seventh Avenue

Eternal life. No more fear of death any more.
Grim reaper has lost his scythe. Living forever now.
All dreams come true. Cause time is no longer an enemy.
All fantasies become real. And the soul's flying high.
See the sunlight. Ride high on the stars above.
Feel the airstream. On the flight beyond death.
I feel the sunlight. I ride upon a shining star.
I feel the airstream. Watching eras pass by.
Addicted to Terium.

Giving them the Terium. Makes them feeling high.
People want to hear the lie. Idiotic fools.
Can not bear the consequences. which awaiting them.
Keep on taking Terium. Hollow endless life.

Expecting salvation be faithful to the law.
Do not care for people they just have their way.

Priests and servants - they are so far away.
Priests and servants - they lead people astray.
Priests and servants - only law not the lord.
They'll never got Creators will in the law.

I hear the cries of men. Cause they want to be free.
Healing is in my hand. It drives me round the bend.
Creators heart is love - why can't you see it.
Why are you so stubborn to ignore the meaning.
Creators son I am - you don't believe it.
You read the prophecies but you don't see through them now.

I will heal them make them free. Though it's against the law.
You don't see the miracles. Idiotic fools.
You just see the broken law. Not the healed men.
I'm a thorn deep in your side. Edge of the law.

Expecting salvation be faithful to the law.
Do not care for people they just have their way.

Priests and servants - they are so far away.
Priests and servants - they lead people astray.
Priests and servants - only law not the lord.
They'll never got Creators will in the law.

Hear what I say. You are free from Terium.
New horizon. On your flight through your life.
See the sunlight. Ride high on the stars above.
Feel the air stream. On the flight through your life always trust in me.

Expecting salvation be faithful to the law.
Do not care for people they just have their way.

Priests and servants - they are so far away.
Priests and servants - they lead people astray.
Priests and servants - only law not the lord.
They'll never got Creators will in the law.
When time has come. Stand before Creators throne.

And you have trusted in me. You will see me and I'll speak for you.
