

Awake

Seventh Day Slumber

As time went on
I opened up my eyes
Never really knew me
You don't know what's deep inside

Just so you know I'll never be like you
I'll take what God has made me
I'm not an empty shell

And I hope they see
Instead of following

Finally awake
I'm feel alive today
I feel everything
It's all so clear to me

Finally awake
I'm feeling like today
I feel everything
It's all so clear to me

How many times
Have I hated who I was
Lost sight of what defines me
'cause of airbrush magazines

But now I've come
To cherish who I am
Sick and tired of faking
A life that wasn't mine

And I hope they see
Instead of following

Finally awake
I'm feel alive today
I feel everything
It's all so clear to me

Finally awake
I'm feel alive today
I feel everything
It's all so clear to me

I'm alive
It's all so clear to me

I'm alive
It's all so clear to me

And I hope they see

Finally awake
I feel alive today
I feel everything
It's all so clear to me

Finally awake
I feel alive today
I feel everything
It's all so clear to me

I feel everything
