

Back Where I Began

Seventh Day Slumber

Where do I go from here, It feels like I'm falling apart
God I know You're real, sometimes I just feel so all alone

And I fake just to hide a smile but I just want to cry
There's a fear inside of ending up right where I began
Don't let me end up where I began

I'm calling Your name, oh Lord
Tonight I'm desperate and I just wanna sit in Your arms
Even if You don't speak, it's cool with me
I just wanna be where You are, whoa, whoa

And sometimes I still can't see how You can love somebody like me
I fail and I fall so hard so far from where I wanna be

So I fake just to hide a smile but I just want to cry
There's a fear inside of ending up right where I began
Don't let me end up where I began

I'm calling Your name, oh Lord
Tonight I'm desperate, I just wanna sit in Your arms
Even if You don't speak, it's cool with me
I just wanna be where You are

And there's no place that I'd rather be 'Cause no other loves like You
Like the waves crashing into the sea
I just want to fall in Your arms
Fall in Your arms, I fall in Your arms

I'm calling Your name, oh Lord
Tonight I'm desperate, I just wanna sit in Your arms
Even if You don't speak, it's cool with me
I just wanna be where You are

I'm calling Your name, oh Lord
Tonight I'm desperate, I just wanna sit in Your arms
Even if You don't speak, it's cool with me
I just wanna be where You are, be where You are

I'm calling Your name, oh Lord
I just want to fall in Your arms
