

Breaking Away

Seventh Day Slumber

I've finally realized that all my dreams lost
Were lost because of me
But tonight, I am changing the way things used to be
And all these memories will be erased

Breaking away
From everything that's hopeless
The road ahead looks wonderful
Breaking away
From everything that's hopeless
The road ahead looks wonderful today

Another day of life
One more chance to live for more than me
I'm reaching out to take the hand of Someone I can't see
And all these memories will be erased

Tonight will be the night
No more waiting, I've spent life waiting
Take this heart of mine
No more waiting, I give myself to You
