

Knows My Name

Seventh Day Slumber

Knows my name

Another life all the that You restored
I felt like giving up, it was You who took me in
You heard the cries of my broken heart
You didn't turn away, I'm forever in Your debt

And the Maker of heaven and earth
Knows me by my name

The Giver of life, the One who makes nation's tremble
He's mighty in battle and I, I still can't believe
The One who made darkness and lights
Set the stars in the sky knows my name

I'm trying to see myself the way You do
Sometimes it just so hard, there are days I am so ashamed
And You are the place that I can run and hide
And listen to Your heartbeat, it's enough just to hear you brea
the

And the Maker of heaven and earth
Knows me by my name

The Giver of life, the One who makes nation's tremble
He's mighty in battle and I, I still can't believe
The One who made darkness and lights
Set the stars in the sky knows my name

And I bow before Your Throne, oh, King of glory
I sing, holy is Your name, You alone are worthy

Giver of life, You make nation's tremble
You're mighty in battle and I, I still can't believe
You're One who made darkness and lights
Set the stars in the sky knows my name

The Giver of life 'cause You make nation's tremble
He's mighty in battle and I, I still can't believe
The One who made darkness and lights
Set the stars in the sky knows my name, my name

He knows my name
