Seventh Day Slumber

Well, I've seen the winds of change now
Why'd they have to change today?
My eyes are drowning in this sea of pain
The world is closing in on me
My soul is sinking in my insides
My soul is sinking inside me
My eyes are cold, black and empty
Can anybody set me free?

Oh, I need something
I need something more
Well, I need You
Oh I need something
I something Lord
Well, I need You

Deception is the only friend I have
His bitter lies are killing me
My eyes are blurring as I fight to stay alive
Bound and broken on my knees

When will it end?
Let the healing begin
When will it end?
Let the healing begin
When will it end?
I'm suffering
