

Defective Fornication

Severe Torture

heavenly father forsaken the unholy presence of godly intent no souls will go to your chapel once blood is spilled and feasted on

guilty of sin
growing illness within the life of a bastards worth nothing to me

killing with hate
torture their faith
death is what perverted liars awaits credulous mother of divine incest lavish praise for the whore of gods unfold your legs of deceit receive my mutilation

submissive fornication repulsive lamentation convulsive resignation sententious desecration

son of disease
down on his knees father and mother dead is all he sees minions of grief do not believe a life of misfortune is what you'll receive
