

Consistent

Sevyn Streeter

At least he's consistent, oh well
It's like he plays a game of checkers with my heart
At least he's consistent, oh we-ell
And though I knew he was

He keep it coming like oh I, oh I
I love it like [?] though when I really want him to work
This stupid shit we got though, it don't mean a thing when we do it
I love it like [?] when I really want him to work
This stupid shit we got though, it don't mean a thing when we do it

At least he's consistent, oh well
It's like he aimed a bow and arrow my heart
At least he's consistent, oh we-ell
And though I knew he was

He keep it coming like oh I, oh I
I love him like [?] when I really want him to work
This stupid shit we got though, it don't mean a thing when we do it
I love him like [?] when I really want him to work
This stupid shit we got though, it don't mean a thing when we do it

Put it all on me, give me that consistently
Give me pleasure, give me pain
Like a rush to my body
Left and cry
You give me a feeling that I can't control, no

He keep it coming like oh I, oh I
I love him like [?] though when I really want him to work
This stupid shit we got though, it don't mean a thing when we do it
I love him like [?] when I really want him to work
This stupid shit we got though, it don't mean a thing when we do it

At least he's consistent
At least he's consistent
At least he's consistent
At least he's consistent
He keep it coming like

At least he's consistent, oh well
It's like he plays a game of checkers with my heart
At least he's consistent, oh we-ell
And though I knew he was (oh I, oh I)
At least he's consistent, oh well
It's like he plays a game of checkers with my heart (oh I, oh I)
At least he's consistent, oh we-ell
And though I knew he was
He keep it coming like
